

THIS LONG WEEKEND

I feel this long weekend is especially precious, maybe because this week I had to finish a lot of work within 4 days. Finally I had to work day and night and got up very early almost everyday. It was really tired. All what I want is to do a good job during weekdays and relax during the weekends.

But to my surprise, recently I just realized that not only my teammates but also many of my friends here are working all the time, including weekends.

This made me wonder, what they were doing during their weekdays. Why now I feel a bit guilty for getting up after 2pm today, then only made a chicken soup and had a meal.

Sometimes I really don't want to be surrounded by people who work all the time, you can do many other things.

Cooking, watching animation or watch some TV shows, do some side projects, play video games, exercise, do some gardening work, house work, go shopping, reading, or just go out to get close to the nature, etc. Why work during the weekend, and it's long weekend...Anyway, I don't want to compete to those people, today, is the day to relax.

THIS LONG WEEKEND

This is definitely not my first chicken soup, but I did something special today. This is the first time I put tofu puff and soybean sprouts in the chicken soup. With tofu puffs in it, I also added some spicy sauce made by cardamom, both the sauce and the taste of chicken soup will make tofu puff juicy and tasty. Soybean sprouts is always a perfect match with tofu puffs.

See the sunset light on my chicken soup? Yes, I got up after 2 pm and finished making the soup around 4pm. Had 1 mean, but it's as delicious as always. Love every Saturday during the long weekend. Just want to relax.
