

Today, when I saw Parin went to that team, kept asking questions, how I wish that was me. If I knew Tanner would join their team, I will never give up production hand over task!!!

And I will take the chance to visit there more often!

However right now I do enjoy applying statistics and do lots experiments in order to provide suggested solutions.

When can I talk to him naturally.....?

