

NEXT WEEK

Not sure whether you will see this,
and maybe writing it here will only make myself feel better.
Tomorrow is our long weekend and then I will fly to Vegas for DEF CON.

This whole week, I haven't used Lync.
Our current work doesn't need Lync, I used that just to see you...
Now at the time when I just want to hold you tight and love you again,
I cannot use Lync in the next 8 days.

I'm here fully focusing on my goals,
and I hope you are too there.

I hope when you recalled me, it's more about sweetness.

I love you
